

Luke 13 Sunday Connection

Welcome

Summary

Alex looked at the two implications Jesus makes in Luke 13:1-8. First that we are all guilty and under great threat; but second that there is hope in the face of that as we repent.

Worship

Prayer

Questions to help facilitate a discussion

1. As you look again at Luke 13:1-8 what did you especially learn or was important to be reminded of?
2. Jesus, the most loving man and most truthful man ever to love, is open to talk about hell/Gehenna. What does this tell you about his motivation to broach such a difficult subject?
3. Alex described repentance in three ways
 - a. Turning around
 - b. Coming to your senses
 - c. Waking upWhich of these is most helpful an analogy for you? What is your experience of repentance as an individual?
4. Jesus tells a story to illustrate the 'slow growth' of repentance. How does this help your understanding of repentance?

Worship

Prayer